

Students, faculty, staff, and others:

The Memphis Chapter of the American Meteorological Society/National Weather Association is pleased to make available a scholarship to a deserving student in order to promote continuing education in the atmospheric sciences and/or meteorology and to provide encouragement to that student in his or her pursuit of a degree in atmospheric sciences. The award is $500 for the 2022-2023 academic year. Enclosed is an application for this award, which must be completed and postmarked or emailed no later than May 16, 2022. More information on the requirements and eligibility is included as part of the scholarship application.

We appreciate your willingness to provide this information to students that may meet the eligibility guidelines and encourage you to make copies, or print as many copies, of this application packet as you wish. All completed applications should be returned to the appropriate party listed on the application individually, by the applicant.

Sincerely,

/s/
